

Delaware Wetland Warrior Nomination 2010

The award is presented annually to a citizen, organization, business or other group that has demonstrated exemplary efforts to benefit Delaware wetlands in the areas of outreach and education, monitoring and assessment, or restoration and protection.

Past recipients have included:

Al Rizzo, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service - July 30, 2009

Al Rizzo restored thousands of acres of degraded wetlands and former wetlands, educated the public on the value of wetlands and trained other scientists on innovative techniques.

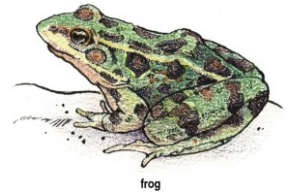

Indian River School District, Outdoor Education Center - July 24, 2008

Indian River School District Outdoor Education Center at Ingram Pond improved the future for protection of wetlands in Delaware by education thousands of students annually on the values of wetlands while performing hands-on monitoring for water quality, studying wildlife interactions and exploring ecosystem dynamics.

Nomination process:

To nominate a citizen, organization, or business please include:

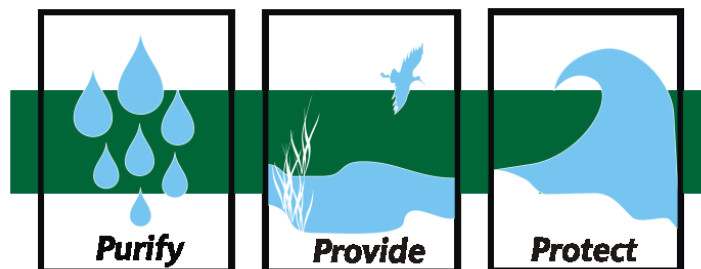

- Name of person or organization
- Contact information for nominee and nominator
- Provide approximately 100-150 words illustrating the role the nominee has played in efforts to benefit Delaware wetlands in the areas of outreach and education, monitoring and assessment, or restoration and protection.

Please submit your nomination to Rebecca Rothweiler, Division of Water Resources,
Rebecca.Rothweiler@state.de.us 302-739-9939 by May 21, 2010.

The award, along with other conservation related acknowledgments, will be presented at the Delaware State Fair on Governor's Day by the Governor and the Secretary of Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Control.
